Infectious Diseases of Dogs in Latin America

- Rickettsiosis
- Leishmaniosis
- Ehrlichiosis
- Babesiosis
- Heartworm Disease
  - Brazil (Northeast)
  - Brazil (North)
- Chagas Disease
  - Bolivia
  - Brazil
- Belize
- Mexico

Risk levels
- No risk
- Low risk
- Medium risk
- High risk
- Perceived risk (no data available)

Country-specific risks of diseases as reported*

- Argentina
  - Babesiosis
  - Chagas Disease
  - Heartworm Disease
- Brazil
  - Babesiosis
  - Chagas Disease
- Grenada
- Panama
- Paraguay
- Peru
- Guatemala
- Guyana
- Mexico
- Costa Rica
- Colombia

Canine vector-borne diseases and their transmitting parasites

- Anaplasmosis
  - A. platys
  - A. phagocytophilum
- Babesiosis
  - B. gibsoni
  - B. canis
- Ehrlichiosis
  - E. chaffeensis
  - E. canis
- Leishmaniosis
  - L. braziliensis
  - L. infantum
  - L. mexicana
- Heartworm Disease
  - D. immitis
  - L. longipalpis
  - L. chilensis
- Hepatozoonosis
  - H. falciparum
- Lyme Disease
  - B. burgdorferi
  - R. sanguineus
- Ticks
  - A. cajennense
  - A. maculatum
- Fleas
  - C. felis
  - C. canis

*Reference:
- Data summarized from publications. For further information, please consult the CVBD World Forum.

With scientific advice from the CVBD World Forum